Declarations

- The total savings account holding of the deceased with the Hinckley & Rugby Building Society does not exceed £250.
- I have produced satisfactory evidence of death.
- under the will or the applicable law of intestacy now in force in England and Wales that the above named is the person beneficially entitled to receive the money, which still stands in the name of the deceased invested in the Society in account number(s) detailed above.
- I make this declaration conscientiously.
- In consideration of the Society releasing funds to me, I agree to indemnify the Society in the event that the Society suffers any loss, damages, charges or fees or if the Society has to defend any claim on the basis that the monies should not have been released
- I/we hereby declare that the money withdrawn will be used in accordance with the legal requirements and duties imposed upon me/us as an Executor. I/we further indemnify the Society against any future claims, costs, actions, damages, interests if the money is not so used for the declared purpose or in breach of our legal requirements or duties.
